THREE CASES DISMISSED IN CRIMINAL DIVISION OF THIRD DISTRICT COURT

With the setting of the criminal calendar for the September term in Judge Lewis's division of the Third district court Monday three criminal cases that have been before the court in one form or another for two years were dismissed. The actions dismissed were:

R. D. Gammon, embezzlement of moneys from the Thiel Detective agency on two counts; Martin F. Hoben of Bingham, statutory offense against a girl of Bingham canyon, Alan Farr, actor, forgery of Willard Mack's name to check for $25 passed on the Kenyon hotel bar.

Gammon was twice tried on the charge of emblezzing approximately $270 from the Thiel Detective agency. It looks now as if a compromise had been effected in this case. Hoben was found guilty of committing a stautory offense upon a girl under the age of consent when the undisputed testimony showed that the girl was over 15 years of age and the supreme court, upon Hoben's appeal, reversed the lower court's judgment of guilty and remanded the case, with instructions to the state, to amend the information to charge fornication or else drop the case. Farr, it is believed, made restitution to Mack, whereupon Mack likely has agreed to drop the case against him.

The most interesting case on the calon two counts; Martin F. Hoben of Bing-

The most interesting case on the calendar for the opening term is that of the state against James L. Malone, chamnion pool player, on the charge of assault with intent to kill Nels Poulsen last winter, which was set for October 19.

Malone and Poulson had an altercation over a pool table sold to Malone by Poulson's company which Malone had transferred to Major Arrasmith of Fort Douglas, and when Poulson called on Malone about the table at his pool and billiard parlors on West Second South street
Malone whipped out a revolver and shot Poulson. The wound did not prove fatal, however, and Malone escaped a charge of murder.
